Romida Examiner Salver 2006

Report on Cup Semi and Finals Day at Marsden 2nd July

U13 section president Allan Greaves presented the Romida Examiner Salver to Skelmanthorpe skipper George Parkes, but praised the skill and exciting cricket played by all the teams competing in the finals day at Marsden. Mr Greaves said the future of each club competing on the day was in good hands. He complimented the coaching and junior management at each club. He also praised the excellent facilities and organisation of the Marsden Cricket Club in staging the event. The umpires Alan Morris of Delph and Ian Mellor of Meltham awarded the player of the day award to Skelmanthorpes Jamie Jagger for his all round performance of six wickets and twenty-six runs during the day. In the final Skelmanthorpe met up with Kirkburton and after an opening 30 not out by their captain George Parkes, solid batting down the order achieved Skelmanthorpe a net score of 287. Despite a good start from their opening pair, where wicket-keeper George Smith contributed 21 not out, the Kirkburton innings stuttered with the loss of wickets until a late flourish from Ben Hewitt which included a powerful lofted drive for six, proved insufficient to overtake Skelmanthorpes score, and their innings closed at net 267 .

Earlier in the day Jamie Jagger had taken four wickets for Skelmanthorpe in their semi-final against Green Moor. The loss of their wickets put the 'new boys' to the League well out of contention in this match.

However in the other semi final between Kirkburton and Broad Oak matters were not resolved until the last bowl of the match -where a wicket to Broad Oak would have given them the victory. Both teams achieved solid scores throughout their batting and each achieved a tally of five wickets. However the Oak finally went down by just seven runs in this high scoring game.
